

First visit questionnaire - confidential

Please fill in the questionnaire below and email back to neil@palmertherapy.co.uk

It contains basic personal and contact details and means that time can be spent during the first visit getting to know each other rather than filling in paperwork. Please be assured that all information is kept in the strictest confidence and notes are kept under lock and key. A strict professional code of conduct means that no information can be given to partners, family members or employers without written permission from yourself.
